

100 down, 80 to go!

On Wednesday, February 15, the students at Lafayette-Pershing School celebrated their 100th day of school!! In honor of being 100 days smarter and 100 days older, they ditched their uniforms and dressed as 100 year olds! With curlers and canes, extra wrinkles and veins, the students and staff enjoyed a fun filled school day in costume. It was a joy to see the children embrace their future with a great sense of humor! Now with the school year more than half over, there is still more work to be done to get our students college and career ready... or in today's case, retirement!
